U20 World Cup selection will be tough — Senong

SA's Kallis and Steyn named

in Ganguly's best-ever XI

SOUTH Africa Under-20 head coach Tha-bo Senong admits he faces a tough deci-sion in selecting his final 21-man squad at the Fifa U20 World Cup. Amajita will travel to South Korea for the global showpiece event, from May 20 to June 11, where they will play in Group D, which also includes Japan, Italy and Uru-

"At the same time, I believe we have a squad that can compete. We are still monitoring some local as well as oversea-based players because the door is not yet closed on anyone, and you may find a surprise." Senong added that they want to take igame by game at the tournament.

"I strongly believe we have the potential to go far in the World Cup, and I hope the players have enough confidence in themselves to believe it.

"We will take it day by day and focus on each game as it comes. The boys have really grown tactically and mentally in the past year and we would like to make this a World Cup to remember.

"The intention is to be in South Korea two weeks before the start of the tournament so we can adapt to the conditions and time zones as quickly as possible," added Senong.

Mazzarri hits back at 'false reports'

CAPE TOWN — Walter Mazzarri has dismissed suggestions that his job as Watford manager is in jeopardy, saying that the stories were fabricated by the media. Mazzarri whose team gave his career a significant boost on Tuesday by beating. West Brom and propelling the Homets up to ninth in the Premier League table, spoke with journalists after the match and highlighted other times that the media reported false stories about the club. "The newspapers say many things. They also said Denney is signing for West Bromwich and then be wouldn'th have played to-day," the 55-year-old said. "The newspapers can write stories or whatever they want. They are free to do that. I said the before I, speak only about hard work and things on the pitch and in training.
